Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-13 and 18-26 drawn to a substrate with a transparent conductive oxide film and to a photoelectric conversion device having said substrate, classified in class 428, subclass 702, and in class 136, subclass 256.
 - II. Claims 14-17, drawn to a process for producing the substrate with the transparent conductive oxide film, classified in class 427, subclass 585.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group II and Group I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process, such as one that does not use an atmospheric pressure CVD method for forming the discontinuous small ridges of first oxide. For example, Swirbel et al (U.S. Patent 5,395,740) shows metal oxide, e.g., ITO, stripes that can be formed on a glass substrate using sputtering and photoresist patterning (see col. 2, line 37 through col. 3, line 50). Ito et al (U.S. Patent 5,999,157) also uses sputtering and photolithography to prepared striped ITO electrodes on a glass substrate (see col. 10, lines 38-42). JP 2001-176334 shows discontinuous convex sections (9,12) of indium/tin oxide can be formed by placing drops of alkoxide solution containing a composite of indium oxide and tin oxide on a substrate and performing heat treatment and hydrotreatment on the drops.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group II is not required for Group I, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Alan Diamond whose telephone number is 571-272-1338. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Friday, 5:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. ET.
